Galatians 1:6-10

6 I am astonished that you are so quickly deserting the one who called you by the grace of Christ and are turning to a different gospel—

7 which is really no gospel at all. Evidently some people are throwing you into confusion and are trying to pervert the gospel of Christ.

8 But even if we or an angel from heaven should preach a gospel other than the one we preached to you, let him be eternally condemned!

9 As we have already said, so now I say again: If anybody is preaching to you a gospel other than what you accepted, let him be eternally condemned!

10 Am I now trying to win the approval of men, or of God? Or am I trying to please men? If I were still trying to please men, I would not be a servant of Christ.

The traditional Christ of whom they speak is not the Christ of whom I speak. For the Christ of whom I speak has been revealed in this the Dispensation of the Fullness of Times. He together with His Father, appeared to the boy Joseph Smith in the year 1820, and when Joseph left the grove that day, he knew more of the nature of God than all the learned ministers of the gospel of the ages.'" I have learned much from watching What Love Is This and X-Mormon files. I am not Mormon.

My thoughts...the LDS church claims to be the only true church. Seems to me that the Jews for Jesus are the only people that can make that claim! I quit ignoring Christ about 11 years ago. Knowing who He is, is the best thing that has ever happened to me.

Praise God for the courage He has given all of you to be able to stand up for Truth in this state. With much love and admiration, B.

P.S. It is so irksome when LDS people say, "I love my church."

Although it was a serious sin, still, I can't help but feel a sense of gratitude to God and Adam and Eve for opening up the way that I could understand good and evil for myself.

In the Bible, I don't see where God was too upset with Adam and Eve for this choice. Instead, we read that God said, "now man has become as one of us, to know good and evil." God's grace is so wonderful, but without the fall we wouldn't have ever known how wonderful it is, because without the fall we wouldn't have needed God's grace.

God knew that Adam and Eve would fall. God knew that Adam and Eve didn't know good from evil. God created them imperfectly, without a knowledge of good and evil. God can't create perfect people. Perfection isn't something that can be created. God is perfect... And, Jesus commanded us to be perfect, even as our Father in Heaven is perfect.

In reality, God is to blame for the fall.

God is responsible for giving a commandment to Adam and Eve that he knew they wouldn't be able to keep.

And, God allowed Satan to tempt Adam and Eve, when he knew that they would obey Satan.

But, at the same time, God is responsible for providing a redemption from the fall. Through the fall, God gave us the opportunity to know Him. God, is responsible for giving us the opportunity to know good and evil, that we might be perfect, as he is.

God wouldn't be perfect, without knowing good and evil. We wouldn't ever have been able to be perfect...without knowing good and evil.

Perfection is a choice, only made by those who know good and evil.

And it's as hard for us to be perfect as God is perfect, as it was for Jesus to suffer the penalty for our imperfection. ...It's as hard for us to sacrifice our pride, as it was for Jesus to suffer the penalty of our pride.

Thus, it makes sense to me, why it's fair, that those who "overcome as Christ overcame, will be joint heirs with Him," as explained in the Book of Revelation. A.

Doris,

I just watched your Apr 17 episode and it was wonderful! I was taught the old Mormon teaching about the garden of Eden and always believed that it was God's plan that Adam and Eve would fall.

I had also been taught that Adam and Eve were destined to partake of the fruit or it would ruin God's plan for us. Now that I am thinking about it why would God tell them not to partake when He really wanted them to do it and sin? That doesn't make any sense.

We have some small grandchildren and they dearly love ice cream. I know that I can tell them not to eat it because it isn't good for them and I hope they won't eat it but I also know pretty well that if they get a chance to eat it they may not control the temptation.

Now that I understand that Adam and Eve were capable of reproducing before the fall, it all seems like God had a wonderful world set up for us until sin entered the picture.

Perhaps He was hoping there would be no sin to cause us the grief that is in the world.

I do remember that in the temple when we went to it many years ago, they showed pictures of the world before the fall of Adam and horses were running and they had little colts running with them. At the time I wondered why the animals were reproducing before the fall.

I love your show, and am so thankful for what you are doing. MD
